LEADERSHIP & Friendship

We are honored to welcome Sandra Dias da Cunha with a course that is designed for those who want to learn about a more horse-friendly approach to training and riding horses, people who are interested in Natural Horsemanship, or even those who are afraid of horses. The focus is on creating a trusting relationship between horse and human. Over the course of two days Sandra will share theory on horse behaviour, teach basic groundwork and rope skills, and there will be plenty of time for you to practice your newly learned skills with one of our horses, or bring your own horse.

SANDRA DIAS DA CUNHA

Sandra brings over forty years of horse experience to the table, with a diversity of qualifications, from Monty Roberts to JCD Riding Academy, as well as five years of studying Freedom Based Training with Elsa Sinclair of TamingWild.

For fifteen years, she owned and managed a large riding school near Lisbon, Portugal before following her calling to start her own ranch. Here, her herd of horses can fulfill their basic needs; the three F's of Freedom, Forage and Friends, by living out on the pasture in herds all the time. Sandra's courses combine theory and groundwork into a holistic, life-changing experience for the participants.
