MOSAIC

Art Retreat

This creative retreat will give you the chance to explore the absorbing, meditative art of mosaic making in the beautiful, inspiring setting of Quinta Carvalhas. Artist, Lucy Jackson, will share the fascinating history of azulejos in Portugal and mosaics from around the world and guide you through the process of mosaic making, using broken tiles and ceramics and explore different techniques and tools. As well as making your own mosaic wall piece or picture you will have the chance to leave your mark by adding to a permanent wall mosaic at the very heart of this beautiful Portuguese farm.

LUCY JACKSON

Lucy Jackson is a creator who loves exploring different materials and processes. Lucy studied Fine Art painting at Winchester School of Art in the United Kingdom and her work includes mosaics, collage and paintings, textiles and sculpture.

After many years of running art workshops, Lucy and her husband began a new adventure in Central Portugal. This beautiful and peaceful place feeds her love of colour and nature. Her charismatic bird and fish wall pieces are bold and tactile and combine Portuguese tiles and recycled crockery.
